This is a long shot/in July-August of 1975, I asked Admiral Monroe to write a paper on the state of the Navy, what things we were doing wrong and what things we were doing right. I used it in discussions in Washington. I doubt that I kept a copy of it and I doubt that we can figure out where it is and it may not even have his name on it, but without making a big effort just think as to whether you've seen it someplace in the files that that kind of a paper might be located please.
